Miss Ruth McCollum, of Junction City has been the attractive visitor of Mrs. Wallace Gover lately.

Quite a crowd from here followed the soldier boys to Stanford to see the last of them and bid them go forth cheerfully.

Dr. Harman has been to his boyhood's home at Felicity, Ohio, to see the aged aunt who raised him and who was very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Munroe Perkins took Elizabeth to Louisville to have her tonsils removed. An operation for adenoids was also performed.

The Christian church has employed Rev. Wright, of Transylvania College, for the year. He will preach the second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Charlie Buchanan and Raymond Bell entertained their friends at a musical at the home of the latter a few nights since. These two have entertained the music loving folks here for many months and realizing this was the last time they would play together, their music was the sweetest they ever played. About thirty-five gathered at Mr. Bell's home and never was a crowd better entertained and never did violin and guitar send forth more plaintive tones. Fruit was passed to all and even carried to the gathered to listen. All had a most pleasant time and were sorry when the parting hour arrived. Some splendid poems were recited and the vocal music was fine.

On Friday night, the 15th, he would not go out to the stores at Preachersville as he generally did, but went to bed early. Arose at eight o'clock Saturday morning and never spoke but once and laid down again. The doctor was called and when he arrived the young man lay seemingly unconscious. He continued in this condition from eight o'clock Saturday morning until Wednesday morning at four o'clock when he breathed his last among his sorrowing friends and relatives. After services at his late home he was laid to rest in Preachersville cemetery Friday afternoon at one o'clock. The burial service conducted by Mr. J. C. McClary and the funeral discourse was beautiful and appropriate.

The sudden sickness and death of the young man has caused a few different stories. It is true that he went with a friend to Lebanon on Tuesday and bought a gallon of brandy. This friend says he was not drinking very much. It is also true that he treated out to his friends a great deal, more than he drank himself, if they had the manhood to tell it, and it did not poison them. This seems to offset the story that he was poisoned by drinking.

Then another black hearted, foul-mouthed lie was told that he had taken poison. His friends who were accord say that he would have been the last person who would have attempted such and those who knew him best say he was always in the best of spirits at all times. The truth is hard for some to tell as their delight is the making and telling of a lie. Very truly yours,

B. I. BLANKENSHIP.

PREACHERSVILLE

In order to set aright and correct some of the different stories which have been circulated by irresponsible persons in the last few days, concerning the tragic and untimely death of my brother, Mr. Geoffrey Lawrence Blankenship, I crave space for the following:

On the first day of February he arose in the strength of manhood of which he was always proud, and at daylight he was half way to Stanford to go before the local board for physical examination or the selective draft. He stood all the tests proudly and passed with high marks. After his examination was completed he went to the Paxton place to take dinner with his brother, Wesley Blankenship and family. He came back to town and came out that afternoon with Mr. M. F. Lawrence. After stopping a while at Mr. John E. Anderson's he came home in the night. Awakening his father he then proudly told him how well he stood the examination. Then after speaking in the highest terms of the gentlemen composing the local board, said he stood five feet eleven inches and weighed 165 pounds with four inch lung expansion. He was so cheerful that Dr. Brown had told him to go out and cheer up the other boys. That on the street Dr. T. W. Pennington told him that Dr. Brown had pronounced him to be the best and soundest man that had been examined. All of which he was very proud.

Sitting before the fire of nights he would tell his father that everybody was affected by the war and that he had rather be in the war where he could be of service to the country. He was even impatient about not getting his call and while waiting he was busy helping saw and get up some firewood just as though he was going to take a visit. All the time he was in the best of health.

But during the time of so much snow and ice he was going down the steep hill-side just north of where J. M. Cress once lived, his feet slipped from under him and he fell heavily, his elbow striking the ground with such force that he thought his arm was broken. His left hand was cut considerably and he told a neighbor that his hand struck the ground with such force that he saw fire. After his body was embalmed there was a place found in or near the left temple where he had had a lick or bruise. This bruise was just where he had told the friend that his head struck the ground. This hard fall was some ten or twelve days before his death. Deceased was never sick in his life excepting the measles several years ago. With this exception his life had been remarkably free from sickness.

On Friday night, the 15th, he would not go out to the stores at Preachersville as he generally did, but went to bed early. Arose at eight o'clock Saturday morning and never spoke but once and laid down again. The doctor was called and when he arrived the young man lay seemingly unconscious. A PASTORAL MESSAGE

To the People of The Presbyterian Church of Stanford

Dear Fellow Workers:—

Have you heard of the Three Million Dollar Drive which the church we love is to begin this month? Have you read the meaning of the mystic letters A. G. L. A.? Ask God—Listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit—What request for prayer have you heard of our communion at 12 o'clock every day from March 1st to 17th for the successful prosecution of this enterprise for God and humanity? Have you heard the slogan of Transylvania Presbytery to which we belong? Here it is: "We expect to tote our end." Will you help the Stanford church to do its best? Our church is one of four that is honored with a large apportionment per capita. Our generosity is known and counted on. Shall we disappoint those who have confidence in us? A great hour has struck in the history of nations. The school of sacrifice opens its doors and asks to enroll every man, woman and child in our nation. Who shall be the teacher of such a school? Who is worthy to open its books? Only He who gave up heaven that He might redeem the world. Already we are beginning to realize the soul is more than the body and spiritual ideals outweigh the world. Patriotic enthusiasm and religious devotion belong together. Is the church going to be a follower? What would He have us do? Let us hear more of this great forward step God is evidently leading us to take. The church services on Sunday March 3 will help us understand this. Therefore come!

Faithfully,

P. L. BRUCE.

DRY-ORGANIZATIONS UNITE

William Jennings Bryan and other prominent temperance leaders have formed a federation of the majority of the agencies which are working in behalf of the countrywide prohibition under the name of the National Dry Federation. Dr. Charles Scanlon, of Pittsburgh, has been elected president.

GOOD MOTHER CROSSES OVER

A good wife and mother went to her reward when Mrs. J. T. Bohon, of the West End of this county, breathed her last at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. A week before, she had suffered a second stroke of paralysis and during the several days of her illness her condition gave little promise of her ever getting well. But it matters not the warning given, husband and children and dear friends are never ready to give up such a woman as Mrs. Bohon was. Had she lived until the eighth of this month, she would have been 76 years old and most all of those long years had been spent in this county, where she was well known and where her influence was always for good. Her husband was Mary Bunn Staggs, daughter of the late Daniel Staggs and wife, whose splendid christian lives were a benediction to all who knew them. The daughter emulated the example of her Godly parents and she could have had no higher aim in life than to follow in their footsteps. Truly a good wife and tender, loving mother has been called from among us and grieved is the sorrow of those of the home and of the community. Besides her husband, Dr. J. T. Bohon, seven children are left to feel the sting of death and the taking from them one who was so much to them. They are: T. K. Bohon, of Decatur, Ill.; Mrs. G. C. Riffe, Hustonville; Horace Y. Bohon, Bowling Green, Mrs. George A. Tucker, Hustonville; Mrs. Ed Powell, Hustonville; Mrs. Fred Jeffers, Kiddles Store, and R. H. Bohon, Kiddles Store. Unbounded sympathy of many friends goes out to them all in their hour of great trouble and prayers from many hearts will ascend the throne of grace in their behalf. The burial will occur in the Hustonville cemetery Saturday morning, after services at the grave by Dr. A. H. Baugh, of the Christian church, of Hustonville, at 10 o'clock. Quite a number of friends from Stanford will attend.

Mrs. Bohon is survived by the following brothers and sisters, Messrs. W. D. Staggs, of the West End, and S. P. Staggs, of Lexington, and Mrs. C. T. Bohon, of Shakertown.

BIG COURT DRAWS TO CLOSE

The February term of the Lincoln circuit court will conclude its duties and adjourn this afternoon. The jury were discharged Thursday afternoon but some equity cases to be tried before Judge Hendrix occupy the docket of today. The grand jury, which also adjourned Thursday afternoon, returned 43 indictments for selling whisky, carrying concealed weapons, perjury and various other offenses. The number is the greatest in years. Since last issue the following cases were disposed of: Charles Baughman $100 and 40 days in jail for selling whisky. This case was an appeal from the lower court. He was also tried on the forfeiture of $250 bond, he having failed to appear for trial. Will Lee was tried on an appeal from the lower court in a whisky case and fined $100 and given 40 days in jail. Both Baughman and Lee left Stanford, for Stanford's good, before or during Christmas. Roy Stewart was tried on an appeal for selling whisky. The lower court fined and gave him a jail sentence but he had a hung jury in the higher court. Tom Lee, colored, was fined $10 and cost in a "cold" check case. William Smith or shooting and wounding a mule belonging to Andy Ledford, was acquitted. Charles Moorefield, was acquitted of the charge of housebreaking but was given 30 days in jail for stealing a lot of harness from Joe Phelps. "Uncle" Dink Farmer was fined $25 for striking John Hooker. Mose Pitman was fined $50 and given ten days in jail for carrying a weapon concealed and $50 for shooting on the highway. Very little of the civil docket was disposed of and the court was one of the poorest for the attorneys in a long time.

Those who take parts in "Broken Fetters," are for the comedy characters, which are splendid—Miss Ophe- lia Lackey, Dr. Brown, Mr. Herbert Reynolds, Mr. Wm. Grimes and Mr. Albert Phillips. THE LATEST WAR NEWS

The speech of Chancellor von Hertling in the Reichstag Monday was an attempt to quiet the dissatisfaction of the people with the war, especially the invasion of Russia. In this connection he declared that Germany had no intention of retaining the occupied territory. Washington regards the address not as a peace move but a clever trick of the militarists to gain a stronger hold on the people.

To the remarkable seamanship of the French crew is attributed the safe arrival at a European port of a 110-foot submarine chaser which had not been heard from since January 15. The little craft was separated from her escort in a terrific gale while bound from America to Europe and having no navigating instrument abroad, the Frenchmen estimated their position and headed for port.

Losses to British shipping in the past week show a considerable increase over the previous week, eighteen merchantmen being sunk by mine or submarine.

The Allies have rejected von Hertling's peace feeler, Arthur J. Balfour in the House of Commons, declared that as long as militarism exists in Germany the war must continue. He asserted that there was no basis for peace in the utterance of the German Chancellor.

Japan has addressed special requests to the Allies for a joint military move in Siberia. The aim is to protect vast war supplies now at Vladivostok. The United States does not look with favor on the plan. It is believed. Other allied nations feel that they haven't men to spare for such an campaign.

FARM BROKER THOMPSON

Your attention is called to the advertisement of Col. Monroe Thompson, farm broker, which appears on the 7th page of this paper. Mr. Thompson has probably sold more farms in the Southern End of this county than any man who ever lived in it and has been the means of bringing more people to Lincoln county than any two men. He offers some bargains in his list herewith presented, but if you should fail to find a farm that pleases you, write or call him up as he has many more bargains on his list. Mr. Thompson is a hustling real estate man, as straight as a string, and a pleasant man to deal with. Get in communication with him if you want a farm in the Southern End.

ABUNDANT CARS ASSURED.

The Interior Journal received the following telegram from Senator Olie James at noon Thursday: "Director General McAdoo has just assured me that he will furnish all the cars that are needed to move the Kentucky hemp crop." We hope this will mean that hemp buyers will get busy and make arrangements to take over the 1917 hemp crop at a good price. A hemp buyer told the writer several weeks ago that the reason no bids were made on the staple is that the buyers had no assurance that they could move the crop and that they would not be "in the market" until they were positive that they would be furnished cars.

GARRARD COUNTY DEATHS

Willie Belle West, young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. West, of Lancaster, died Sunday morning after a protracted illness. The young man had spent some time at Asheville, N. C., with the hope of regaining his health, but without avail. William Richardson, aged 38, is dead in the Holiness church section of Garrard. He is survived by his wife and two children.

Garrard man, is dead at Simpsonville, Shelby county. His wife, who was Miss Katherine Arnold, of Garrard, survives. Napoleon B. Cheat-ham died at Bryantsville Friday night after a protracted illness.

DAMAGE SUIT AFFIRMED.

Some five years ago the creek at Paint Lick, Garrard county, overflowed its banks during a freshet and did much damage. It was charged that the L. & N. bridge was the trouble and a test case was the result. Judge C. A. Hardin, of this district, was sitting at Lancaster when the case was tried and the jury found a verdict of $1,000 for the plaintiff. The Court of Appeals this week affirmed the decision, and as there are some 50 or more persons who claim damage by the waters, the chances are there will be many more suits against the company filed.

COL. FINCH MAKES BIG SALE

Col. Paul Finch, of the Interstate Realty Company, Lexington, sold the Bonta farm in Mercer county, Tuesday, in three tracts, to J. H. Farley, of Harrodsburg, 144 acres at $147 an acre; to Ernest L. Sampson, of Harrodsburg, 11.1 acres at $161 an acre; to A. L. Wiley, of Wilmore, 124.45 acres at $134 an acre. The farm of H. L. Caldwell which adjoins that of Bonta, containing 11.75 acres was sold to J. M. Leavewood for $112.25 per acre. Col. John B. Dinwiddie, of Moreland, cried the sale and did the work admirably.

FINED FOR SELLING WHISKY.

Mr. George W. Carter was fined $400 and given twenty days in jail in Judge R. L. Davidson's court Thursday afternoon on the charge of selling whisky. These were four cases against him and he threw himself on the mercy of the court. There are said to be other charges of a similar nature against Mr. Carter, seven indictments being returned against him by the grand jury which adjourned Thursday.

Which Is More Urgent?

FIRE INSURANCE—

Important? You fully realize it. You would not allow your house to remain uninsured over night.

Your house may never burn. Comparatively few buildings ever do.

If your house does burn, your property is destroyed, but you can still provide for your loved ones. Your income remains unaffected, your earning capacity unimpaired.

If your house is not insured at all, or for an insufficient amount,

YOU
Carry the Risk

Your friend has had his home insured these thirty years, and has had no fire. He has been fortunate in that, though he has nothing now to show for the money paid out.

LIFE INSURANCE—

Important? Oh yes, you intend to insure after awhile when "a little better able to do so."

You will surely die. All men do. You are more likely to die within a week or a year, than your house is to burn.

Death destroys at once and irrevocably, in whole or in part, the income that provided for the daily wants of those you love, the income that was counted on to feed and clothe and educate your children.

If your life is not insured at all, or for an insufficient amount,

Your Wife and Babies
Carry the Risk

Your friend has had his life insured these 30 years, and is now an old man. He is fortunate in having lived, and he has something now to show for the money paid out. His cash value affords a comfortable support for his own declining years.

HERE'S THE ENTERING WEDGE

Following are the four principles set forth by President Wilson upon which a just peace must be based and to which Chancellor von Hertling referred to in his speech before the German Reichstag:

"1. That each part of the final settlement must be based upon the essential justice of that particular case and upon such adjustments as are most likely to bring a settlement that will be permanent.

"2. That people and provinces are not to be hartered about from sovereignty to sovereignty as if they were mere chattels and pawns in a game, even the great game, now forever discredited, of the balance of power; but that

"3. Every territorial settlement involved in this war must be made in the interest and for the benefit of the populations concerned, and not as a part of any mere adjustment or compromise of claims among rival states; and,

"4. That all well-defined national aspirations shall be accorded the utmost satisfaction that can be afforded them without introducing new or perpetuating old elements of discord and antagonism that would be likely in time to break the peace of Europe and consequently of the world."

MIDDLEBURG

The small-pox excitement has about subsided, but the little folks are being worried with roseola.

Jack Wells has taken a position as traveling salesman for E. L. Martin & Co., of Lexington, and is on the road.

Hart Coffey's house at the crossing of Doe Creek, on the Liberty pike, burned one night last week. It was a small boxed building and the flames had gained too much headway to save any of the contents.

Those who witnessed the parting of the 45 soldier boys and their loved ones at Liberty Saturday, say it was a real pathetic scene. These warriors are sad to say the least of them. The good people of Liberty gave the boys an oyster supper Friday night and did everything possible to make them feel good.

Mrs. J. S. Murphy and her little son, John Jr., spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. R. M. Fogle.

It seems that we will have cheap Irish potatoes this year. Our merchants say there is no demand whatever for them now. Navy beans are more plentiful than usual with little or no demand for them.

Rev. C. D. Chick preached several nights last week at Lanham's schoolhouse to good audiences.

Granville and H. G. Lutes bought 20 head of shoats of J. C. Fogle at 14c. They will be delivered Tuesday.

If the Legislature does no more in the days it has to run than in the days it has already wheeled away it would have been better had the members remained at home. So far they have not been able to get a respec-

Several tobacco beds were burned and sowed last week. Regardless of the high price of the weed it will not be extensively cultivated here this year. We hear of several farmers who will cut it out altogether.

The war is the only topic here, and it is astonishing how much some people would have you think they know about it. In fact they would have you believe that they had just returned from headquarters, where all the secrets were laid bare to them.

In the collapse of the Chinese public stands at the Hong Kong jockey club races Tuesday, 100 women and children were trampled to death, according to a Reuter dispatch from Hong Kong. Fire broke out and several hundred others were burned to death.

Prices Still Running High

On the Danville Breaks. Averages Still Soaring and the Growers Are Highly Pleased

We will hold auction sales every day, excepting Saturday and holidays from now on. You can rest assured that Danville will be the highest market in this section, as we are the closest market to the largest re-drying and manufacturing plants in the world. Our accommodations for both man and beast are as good as the best. The loose leaf floor plan is the best and only way of marketing tobacco to insure the highest dollar to the grower. These facts have been demonstrated in Virginia, North and South Carolina, where they have been selling tobacco on this plan for the past fifty years. Drive your wagon to the Danville market. You will always find some one to attend to your wants, and welcome you. During the sale we will do our very best to get you the highest market price for your tobacco. All the large factory buyers are on hand at each sale. We have experienced men in all departments to look after your interests, including two of the finest auctioneers in this or any other state. Our charges for selling tobacco will be the same as last year. The fact that everything else has increased makes no difference here. The warehouses do not buy tobacco except on sale at auction. We do a strictly commission business. Free stables and no rejection fee. Appreciating your past patronage, we hope you will see your way clear to bring us your tobacco, guaranteeing you the highest market prices, absolutely accurate weights and an all around square deal.

You should pay particular heed to any indication that your blood supply is becoming sluggish, or that there is a lessening in its strong and vital force.

By keeping your blood purified, your system more easily wards off disease that is ever present, waiting to attack wherever there is an open-

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. Walton and J. H. Wright

Entered at the postoffice at Stanford, Ky., as second class mail matter.

Shelton M. Sausley, editor of the Richmond Register, disclaims any intention of casting a slur on Stanford and her people, and even if he did say "bad things" about us and our town we will let him go without further spanking on the grounds that he will sin no more. With no desire to pluck laurels from the splendid officers that are now in charge, we will say in justice to their predecessors that the "well-dressed colored gentlemen" Mr. Sausley speaks of leaving Stanford, took their departure before Chief of Police Wood and Sheriff Harry C. Baughman went into office. This, however, is of no importance, but is mentioned merely to show that Mr. Sausley is incorrect in one of his charges, if not in many others.

Representative Billy Klar said in the Legislature this week that nobody pays any attention to the newspapers any more. Evidently Billy has a grouse against some newspapers but he ought to differentiate and not include all in the list of the one to which he doubtless refers, the Lexington Leader, which fought him with a viciousness, but failed to beat him by some 2,500 majority. It does look like there are grounds in that case at least for the assertion that people no longer pay attention to some papers, but the astute law maker from Lexington must not get mad with all the papers for what one tried to do to him.

The Legislature ought to repeal the parole law or at least make its provisions more stringent against the promiscuous granting of paroles by the prison boards to hardened criminals. More than thirty per cent. of those paroled are returned to prison on account of misconduct and many more doubtless should be. When a lawbreaker, after all the tricks of the average criminal lawyer, finally is sent up for a term, which is usually shorter than the offense warrants, he should be made to suffer the penalty with manly sentimentality taking no hand in the matter.

The year 1917 was a tough one on newspapers owing to the high cost of everything that enters into their production. Forty-nine dailies and 530 weeklies tucked their little toes under the daisies, in addition to a large number of consolidations. It costs fully 50 per cent more to produce a paper now than before the war and the end is not yet. A good many more will ascend the flame before 1918 will have passed in its checks.

On motion of Senator Jay Harlan, of Boyle, the Senate endorsed Senator Ollie James' splendid recital of the accomplishments of the administration in preparing the army and navy for war and his admirable defense of the President against the criticisms of the Chamberlains and Hitchcocks and others who are in the aid and comfort to the meanest enemy that ever menaced a civilized world, and gave him a vote of thanks.

A constitutional amendment has been proposed in the General Assembly for the automatic removal from office of any official who fails to do his full duty in protecting a prisoner from mob violence. A similar provision prevails in certain States and works admirably. There is no "laying down" in them and letting a prisoner be lynched without making all the resistance possible.

A. D. Miller, for many years editor of the Richmond Climax and at one time president of the Kentucky Press Association, has leased the Enthus, Fla., Lake Region, formerly edited by Clarence E. Woods, and will edit and manage it. Mr. Miller is a very capable newspaper man, a forceful writer and should do well with the popular Florida publication.

That there are many useless offices at Frankfort cannot be gainsaid and bills are before the Legislature to abolish quite a number of them and consolidate others, but we have "fifteen dollars in our inside pocket" which says adjournment day will come and "nary" a single office will be abolished. The more's the pity.

The House by a vote of 344 to 21 passed the so-called Alien Slacker Bill to bar from citizenship aliens and authorizing deportation of aliens of draft age who claim exemption from the military service and authorizing the drafting of aliens for agricultural and manufacturing work.

The applications for renewal of licenses show that there are 106 saloons in Lexington, which is some 75 less than a few years ago, but still too many by 106. The year 1920 will see the capital of the Blue Grass as arid as the Sahara desert, if indications prognosticate coming events.

Central Record says that James I. Hamilton, Garrard's biggest farmer, saw grasshoppers out on one of his farms the other day. That's nothing. Some of those Garrard county people saw snakes when the mercury was 15 below zero.

The worst winter in the memory of man is over, so far as the months are concerned, but do not let us get gay. The old weather prophets say that those February thunderstorms we had forecast killing frosts in May.

His many friends over the State will be glad to know that Hon. James M. Richardson, postmaster at Glasgow, has been appointed for another term.

Dr. A. N. Davis, former American dentist to the Kaiser, who left Germany a month ago to return to the United States, declared the inspired newspapers in Germany are trying to foster the idea among the German people that America is not really in earnest about the war and that every effort is being made to belittle the United States.

Save Your Worn Tires

You Can Get 5,000 to 10,000 More Miles out of them by using Gates Half-Sole Tires. We will put them on for you and change your old tires into new ones at about one-half the price you would have to pay for new tires.

Your tire comes into our plant, worn and scarred from service, and we deliver it back to you--the same tire--made oversize and with a brand-new non-skid tread of fresh rubber. Not a square inch of your old tire will be in sight, and you will not be able to tell it from a new tire.

GATES HALF-SOLE TIRES

Are absolutely guaranteed for 3,500 miles of wear without a puncture--and many users are averaging from 5,000 to 10,000 miles. You cannot get this kind of guaranteed service from any tire on the market without paying two or three times the cost of a Gates Half-Sole Tire.

LET US SHOW YOU! Don't throw away another worn tire until you have investigated the Gates Half-Sole. If you are paying the tire bills you will be interested and we are ready to show you how to keep in your own pocket a big part of the cost of new tires and get better tire service than you have ever had before. We guarantee it.

"Corn-Less Day" for Feet, Every Day

Use "Geta-It" the Great Corn Discoverer! Makes Corns Peel Right Off!

Look at the illustration below. See the two fingers peeling off a corn as though it were a banana peel. And the man is smiling while he's doing it! All done painlessly, joyfully. The moment "Geta-It" touches a corn or callus the growth is doomed. It takes but two seconds to apply "Geta-It." The corn-pain is eased at once. You can sit at your desk or walk about, dance, think, love and work with absolute ease. You can apply "Geta-It" conveniently almost anywhere where you can take your shoe and stocking off for a moment or two. "Geta-It" dries at once; then put your shoe and stocking on again. There's no further excuse for suffering from corns and corn-pains.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful."

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui.

By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED

Best For Liver And Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. It

SEED CORN PROPOSITION

Leaders of agricultural extension work in the State who were called into conference at Lexington last Monday by Dean Cooper have decided on a vigorous and well-organized campaign to inform the farmers of the seriousness of the seed corn shortage and to help them to secure enough seed for this year's planting. This, the consensus of opinion expressed by the conferees, is necessary if the State is to be saved from a corn crop shortage.

The various State and local organizations are to be enlisted in a State-wide campaign and an effort made to arouse the farmer to the seriousness of the situation.

In a proclamation which will be issued by Gov. Stanley the first ten days of March will be set aside as a period in which the farmers of the State will be asked to take steps to test their seed corn. In the proclamation he will ask all the high and graded schools, the clergy and the press to render all assistance possible in helping the farmers overcome the threatened shortage.

The help of F. M. Sackett, State Food Administrator, will be sought. Councils of National Defense will be enlisted in the work. All the seed dealers of the State will have the matter set before them clearly and they will be asked to render all the assistance at their disposal in procuring and distributing stocks of good seed corn.

In counties now without an agent emergency agents will be appointed to carry on the work. State and district agents will make specific plans for the work in their districts and assist the county agents in putting the plans into practice.

Seed corn testing headquarters will be established in the county seats of each county where farmers may take their corn and have it tested and where seed corn will be advertised. The children of high and graded schools will be enlisted to help in the work. These tests will determine the fertility of the corn and will help to find the best seed corn of each county. The county agents will hold night meetings in various parts of each county, and by demonstrations and talks will endeavor to encourage as many farmers as possible to make ear test of their corn. Red Cross organizations also will be asked to assist in testing seed corn on a wholesale basis for a stipulated sum for each ear tested. This will not only raise money for the Red Cross organizations, but will facilitate the testing of the corn.

Each county will be requested to arrange for supplies of seed corn for local needs and this work can be facilitated, it is thought, through a committee working independently or through co-operation with the local seedsmen.

J. E. Crider will act as general manager of the campaign, E. J. Kinney will be in charge of publicity.

Read! Think! Act!

Just REASON with yourself and you are bound to come to the conclusion that REAL ESTATE is not only the safest investment in the world but pays bigger dividends than anything else. Lots of acres pay several times 100 per cent, on the investment and you cannot put your money anywhere else that will begin to do this. If the best land in Indiana, Illinois and other states is bringing from $400 to $500 per acre why won't ours be bringing the same pretty soon? For we have as good land as you can find on the globe and our climatic conditions are better than most states. Land is bound to go higher and can never be any cheaper. If you were to cut the present prices one half that you are getting for your products at present prices land would then be entirely too cheap compared with dividends derived from land as to dividends derived from investments from any other source. They tell you that when the WAR is over prices will drop. Just apply the rule of reason. If the war should stop tomorrow, hasn't the world got to be fed? And hasn't this country got to do it? Doesn't everything rest on the American farmer and American soil? Would it be possible for the present prices to drop under two or three years? If you are a thinking man, your answer is bound to be NO. Now is the time of your life to make money. This is the best time in the world to invest in American dirt. Read these over.

A Small Bottle Destroys Dandruff
And Doubles Beauty Of Your

The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that is has been neg-

HOW "CAMOUFLAGE" STARTED
"Camouflage," or the art of making a soldier look like a clump of bushes, an army headquarters like a peaceable farm, and a village like a few acres of pasture land is now said to have been originated by Commandant Kopenhagen, of the French army. Experiments were made in October, 1912, at the Camp of Avord, the object then in view being to render a troop of infantry invisible to observers in airplanes. The success then achieved did not establish the institution because the means employed were so cumbersome and expensive in execution. It was only after the first few months of the war that the painter's services were called into play and canvas and paint as well as underbrush became useful adjuncts of the army.

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots Of It In Stanford But Daily Growing Less

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed; Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble.

It is often the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Mrs. J. S. Good, Logan St., Stanford, says: "A constant backache brought me down so I couldn't do my housework. I couldn't get relief day or night and at times I could hardly move. I had nervous headaches and the action of my kidneys caused me much annoyance. My limbs and feet were swollen and so sore I could hardly stand. Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at the Lincoln Pharmacy relieved the backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble."

MONEY THE AMBITION OF THE AMERICAN YOUTH

Next to character and wisdom, money is probably the greatest earthly blessing. It is like coal, gasoline or dynamite, dead and useless in itself and dangerous if misused, but always full of power. Rightly used, wealth not only gives to its possessor comfort, health, culture and happiness, but enables him to bestow all these blessings on others. All of us therefore, will agree that to get rich safely, honestly and rapidly is a praise worthy ambition for the young Americans.

The far more practical question for us is, "By what route we can best reach that goal?" There are competitors trying to beat us to it, and numerous roads and trails to choose from, much advice from without, a multitude of failures on every side and small hopes of correcting early mistakes. Certain very tempting short cuts will land you in the poor-house or the penitentiary. Some of the most popular roads, thronged with eager and hopeful runners, start out like city boulevards, but will soon slow down in endless mud, doomed for the rest of your days. There are two mistakes which are responsible for more failures in business than all others combined. One is a question of character, the other of education. Both must be settled in boyhood and a wrong decision of either question cannot be undone by a life time of later regrets.

The first mistake is to believe that in the world of practical business trickery and underhand dealings will hasten wealth and business leadership. Of course they may increase the profits of a single day, but modern business is so based on confidence and so quick to detect unreliability that crooked dealings will cripple you in the race for a larger business. The dishonest business man of today is a suicide to his prospects. —The Lincolnian.

Killed by Poisons

All scientists agree that poisonous products in the blood are eliminated by the kidneys and liver. The kidneys act as a kind of filter for these products. When the kidneys are changed or degenerated, by disease or old age, then these poisons are retained in the body. If we wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if we want to increase our chances for a long life, Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., says that you should drink plenty of water daily between meals to flush the kidneys. Then procure at your nearest drug store Anuric. This Anuric drives the uric acid out. Scientific men have learned that in gout, also rheumatism, poisonous uric acid crystals are deposited in or about the joints, in the muscles—where inflammation is set up.

If we wish to keep our kidneys in the best condition a diet of milk and vegetables, with only little meat once a day, is the most suitable. Drink plenty of pure water, take Anuric (double strength) three times a day for a month. Anuric is many times more potent than lithia.

Send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., ten cents for trial package of Anuric.

KETTLE ISLAND, Ky.—"I suffered for years with kidney and bladder troubles and took all kinds of medicine, but could not tell that it did me much good. About three years ago I had terrible sick spells which would last two or three days. Kidney secretion was high color. At last I procured a trial package of Dr. Pierce's Anuric. I then took five or six packages of the tablets and can truthfully say they did me more good than all the other medicines. I feel much improved in every way. I want sufferers from kidney troubles to try 'Anuric' and learn for themselves its merits."—A. J. BAILEY.

The following description of a man by Miss Ora James, daughter of Mr. James, of Lincoln county, was handed to Prof. E. C. Lester. Can you guess who?

I am thinking of a gentleman with blue eyes and light hair,

And a life full of care.

He visits the country for miles around,

And his wealth in paper dollars will never abound.

He has a mansion for a home

And for a charity purpose, he is always ready to loan.

He is always sociable, affable and kind,

And to the sufferings of the village is never blind.

He has teeth and complexion like the new fallen snow.

And has a nature unblemished and unspoiled by art,

He has a generous soul and a warm noble heart.

He always dresses in good clothes,

And has no mustache under his nose. Sing, he can sing, like a nightingale,

But when he opens his mouth it looks like a whale.

When a call is sent out he orders the Fords,

Or orders a satchel of leather and boards.

Can you afford to pay less?

For over 30 years Crossett Shoes have stood for unusually good leather—strong of body, fine in grain. That is what has given them their superior wearing qualities.

Today such leather can be used only in shoes costing at least $7.50 to $12.

Men pay more attention to values than they used to. They find that shoe dollars go further in a high-type shoe like Crossetts.

The shoe below is a fine example of Crossett style and comfort. Let us show it to you.
